

So Blessed

Do you ever wake up early in the morning with things on your mind? This past Wednesday I woke up at 4 a.m. I usually pray when I first wake up. I normally thank God for another day and start thinking about the plans for my day. This particular morning was a little different. I reflected more about the day I had on Tuesday. Tuesday started out by waking up with my wonderful wife, Jayne. We talked about the confirmation hearing and our plans for the day. I went to the church and had some good study time. I also had some good conversations with some good friends. Donnie and I were able to visit a couple of people at the Maples. This was the first time I had been able to do that since March. I then went hunting with my son and two grandchildren. I watched seven deer frolic and graze as the sun was about to go down. Then I finished the day eating supper with my family.

When I woke up that Wednesday morning, I thought about how blessed I am. I have a Lord who loves and cares for me. He has given me a wife who loves Him and me. I have friends who I can share my life with as they share theirs. My immediate family are all saved. We live close enough to each other that we can do things together. The Lord allows be the opportunity to enjoy His creation. Through all this I get to enjoy the presence of the Lord. Notice, if you would, that my blessings are about the Lord and people. It is not about money or possessions. It is not about our position in life. It is about relationships. It is about our relationship with the Lord and the people we meet and know in life.

Wednesday morning was a fantastic time for me as I reflected on the blessings of Tuesday. God is so good to me. But I do not think I am alone. God is not a respecter of persons. He wants to bless us all. He wants to bless you. I know sometimes the circumstances of life can be challenging. But our God is bigger than any circumstance.

Trust Him. The old song says, "Count your many blessings, name them one by one. Count your many blessings see what God has done." May we be a people who thanks the Lord for all the ways He has blessed us!

Students Ministry News

Tonight, we will be showing the movie Courageous in our church parking lot at 7:00 PM.

Teaching honor and the willingness to faithfully serve God begins in our homes. We can learn core values in scripture from this movie. We are to demonstrate priorities, responsibilities, and faith in our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ so that we can create a legacy that passes from generation to generation.

Four men, one calling: To serve and protect. As law enforcement officers, Adam Mitchell, Nathan Hayes, David Thomson, and Shane Fuller are confident and focused. Yet at the end of the day, they face a challenge that none of them are truly prepared to tackle. It is fatherhood. While they consistently give their best on the job, good enough seems to be all they can muster as dads. But they're quickly discovering that their standard is missing the mark. When tragedy hits home, these men are left wrestling with their hopes, their fears, their faith, and their fathering. In the end, these dads draw closer to God and to their children?

God desires for every father to courageously step up and do whatever it takes to be involved in the lives of his children. But more than just being there or providing for them, he's to walk with them through their lives and be a visual representation of the character of God, their father in heaven.

Furthermore, parents should love their children and seek to win their hearts. They should protect them, discipline them, and teach them about God. Parents should model how to walk with integrity and treat others with respect and should inspire their children to become responsible men and women who live their lives for what matters in eternity.

Adopt A Homebound/ Nursing Home Resident

We are going to start a "adoption" ministry for those who are homebound or in nursing homes. We want church members adopt one person to call, send cards to and encourage.

We will supply each adopting member with 4/5 cards a month, envelopes & postage... so each adoptee can get at least a card a week, a phone call and/or visit if possible. To sign up, call the church office. This is not to take the place of any other ministry... but a new opportunity to serve.
