

The Beauty of the Body

And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works: Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.

(Hebrews 10:24-25)

Tuesday evening's Thanksgiving service was so good. We had plenty of food and a good place to meet. I would like to thank all those who made it possible. To the men who cooked the turkeys, I say thank you for your time and efforts. To the women who cooked the dressing and gravy, thanks for that great side dish. To all those who cooked and brought all those veggies and desserts, thanks for completing the meal. To all those who set up and cleaned up, thanks for your time of dedication and hard work. It was all so appreciated.

I really would like to thank you all as a body of believers. It took a lot of work and time to pull off that meal. But, I would also like to thank you for sharing your hearts.

During the singing and testimony time God spoke through you and encouraged me tremendously. It is so good to hear what the Lord is doing in the lives of people! As I listened to your testimonies I understood the Scripture in Hebrews so well. We need to assemble ourselves together that we might see fully how the Lord is working in the lives of all those who make up the body of Christ. Our testimonies show others the power and love of God for His people. Know that if Jesus tarries the days will come when people will not be so encouraging. They will forsake the assembling together. Always embrace the assembling and enjoy the body of Christ. There is nothing like it!!
