

Congratulations Graduates

I would like to congratulate all those graduating this year. I know you have worked hard to get to this point in your life. You have made wise choices for which you are now being rewarded. Now life will take you to a different level. You are now having to make adult choices that can sometimes be speculative and confusing. There is always one thing that you can count on - the Lord has a plan for you. In Jeremiah 29, we are told that the Lord has thoughts of peace for us; that He wants to give us a future and a hope. It goes on to say that we must call on and listen to Him. You see, according to this Scripture, when we seek Him with all our heart we will find Him. That is where we find a future and a hope that cannot be found anywhere else! You will be making many decisions in the days ahead; decisions that will effect your entire life. These decisions will not always be easy. They will come with heartaches, and sometimes heartbreaks. But if you will follow the Lord's words found in Jeremiah you will be a complete success in all you do. You see His will is always perfect. He will always guide you in the right direction. He will lead you in the way that will bring you a peace and a hope that you will find nowhere else. Trust and follow Him. Be patient in all your decisions. Let the Lord be your guide. He will make your life so good and rewarding!
May the Lord bless and keep you all the days of your life!!!

Missionary of the Week

Playing and coaching soccer have provided a platform for Robert Pinkston to minister in Quebec, Canada. He and his wife, Sharon have one daughter who is also a soccer player. They have begun building networks with players, coaches and parents. The people in Quebec are the most unreached and non-evangelized people of North America. Only 0.5% are followers of Christ. One blessing has been a missional impact house on campus where Christian students live and use the house to engage the lost with free meals, discussion nights and other activities. Pray for opportunities to share the gospel through recreation and sports. Also, pray for French speaking volunteer mission teams.
