

Times of Planning

I have heard it said, "If you want to make God laugh tell Him your plans." We had plans to restart our Sunday School and some other programs. Well, things took another turn! We are having to again meet in the parking lot on Sunday mornings and use the internet on Sunday and Wednesday evenings. This might seem like an inconvenience. But at least we can get together and worship, even if it seems different than what we are used to.

As we have gone through these past few months I have asked and prayed for wisdom more than ever before. We are faced with uncertain times. What is true for today might be different tomorrow. What the experts tell us today will be obsolete tomorrow. New data seems to be coming out daily, changing our perspectives every day.

There is one thing we all can always count on: our God will always see us through! Think back of how He took care of the children of Israel. There never was a time He forsook them. When times were tough and things seemed so bad, they would call on the Lord.

He would always deliver them from whatever (or whoever) came against them. He is the same today.

He will hear us when we pray. He will care for us through everything. Take time to look at Philippians 4:6-7, 19. Let's trust the Lord, let our request be known to Him, and know He will supply all our needs by Jesus Christ. May we praise and honor Him through it all. He alone is worthy of our praise!

In the game of life, the breaks don't always go our way. Sometimes life throws us curves that we are not expecting. When we suffer through disappointments, we must realize that God is still in charge. God is sovereign. He reins over the entire universe and He reigns over your small part of that universe. Our job as believers is to recognize His sovereignty and live in accordance with his commandments He gives us in scripture. We must learn to trust in his promises. Sometimes, that is a lot easier said than done. God is in control and He is all around us. He intends to use uncertain times in your life in wonderful unexpected ways. Our challenge is to watch, listen, and learn through the Holy Spirit what God is teaching us so we can bear fruit to those we interact with on a daily basis. Our Lord never asks us to decide for him, he ask us to yield to him. Even though you may not understand God's plan, you must trust Him.

Billy Graham said "Our sense of joy, satisfaction, and fulfillment in life increases no matter what the circumstances if we are at the center of God's will. "

Music Notes

Because He lives,
I am no longer lost in my selflessness and pride.
Because He lives,
My old self died and took on His presence.
Because He lives,
I can not only face tomorrow, but eternity.
Because He lives,
I am free from sin and shame.
Because He lives,
I can stand in my Fathers presence
Because He lives
I am no longer afraid to die.
Because He lives, we all are free from the curse,
death and fear.
We can call on Him anytime day or night and He is there.
His Word is mine to hide in my heart and to receive all He has provided.
I am His child, beloved and accepted. Called righteous and holy.
Because He lives--
I am who I am..
